

Summary of Comments

	What Visitors Like Most	What Else They Would Like to See
Battle Hill	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Well maintained facilities Helpful ranger Well marked tracks and direction signs Attractive bush walks and birdlife Feeling of safety 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> More tracks (walking and mountain biking) More picnic tables and seats; Further improvements to signage e.g. track times Better pest plant control e.g. blackberry; convolvulus; tradescantia More native regeneration No motorway (Transmission Gully)
Belmont	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Undeveloped & uncluttered character Well maintained Park & facilities Excellent tracks Stunning views Multi-use tracks Progress on pest plant control 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Improved signage More facilities e.g. toilets, water, etc Multi-use issues addressed (e.g. mountain-bike riders and walkers); better dog control Track enhancement (e.g. more cycle tracks); also more maintenance Better pest plant and animal control e.g. blackberry, nettles More regenerating bush
Kaitoke	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The beauty of the natural environment Attractive bush walks Well maintained Park Excellent camping facilities Helpful ranger 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Rubbish bins (take home policy currently applies) More tracks Better signage and information in some areas (particularly Te Marua end) Showers for campers More picnic tables Better pest plant control Better dog control
Queen Elizabeth Park	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Undeveloped, natural state Clean & tidy facilities (despite age of some) Work by Ranger New toilets Excellent picnic areas 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Rubbish bins (also comment re: more education on "take home" policy) More seating; upgrade toilets and BBQ furniture Improved signage/interpretation Multi-use issues addressed (e.g. conflicts between horse riders, dog walkers, mountain bike riders) Track enhancement Better pest plant control; remove debris from streams; more trees; (e.g. native coastal plantings), improve/repair playground; open Esplanade carpark More speedbumps Better dog control
Rimutaka Incline/Tunnel Gully Recreation Areas	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Good tracks in a quiet forested setting Well maintained picnic areas & facilities Undeveloped, natural state Good family environment 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> More sensitivity when logging, More native plantings More seats & tables; better toilets More/better signposting at forks/intersections Track enhancement - e.g. changes to accommodate baby buggies Multi-use issues addressed