

Community engagement: values

Bang the Table

- 23 Dec 2015 - 5 Feb 2016

How did participants hear about the values survey?

Bang the Table – key themes

Committee's values (from 03.12)

Community's values (pre-FOE)

A word cloud representing the Committee's values. The most prominent words are 'kaimoana', 'swim', 'clean fish', 'connect', and 'quality'. Other visible words include 'whanau', 'spiritual', 'exploring', 'intrinsic', 'rubbish', 'fishing', 'safe', 'food', 'visual', 'cycling', 'health', 'play', 'water', 'sedimentation', 'paddling', 'natural', 'picnics', 'diving', 'fun', 'stock', 'beautiful', 'access', 'waka-ama', 'walking', and 'rubbish'.

WordItOut

A word cloud representing the Community's values. The most prominent words are 'access', 'swim', 'walk', 'fish', 'dive', 'safe', 'clean', and 'natural'. Other visible words include 'quality', 'connect', 'spiritual', 'whanau', 'picnic', 'kai', 'fishing', 'health', 'waka-ama', 'food', 'cycle', 'intrinsic', 'sediment', 'rubbish', 'beautiful', 'paddling', 'kaimoana', 'play', and 'fun'.

WordItOut

What's next for Bang the Table?

- The online survey will run until the end of March – keep encouraging people to fill in the survey!
- All surveys from Festival of the Elements and CreekFest will be loaded by the project team

Contact with community leaders

- Spreadsheet circulated in January with groups allocated
- Round table – who have you been in contact with?
- Are there any gaps?